The Star-Spangled Banner

O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hail at the twilight's last gleaming?
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous flight,
 O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
 And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
 O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Alma Mater

St. Petersburg, St. Peterburg
 To thee we sing our song,
 Although in foreign lands we roam
 For thee we'll always long.
 The happy hours spent in thy halls,
 The friendships made years will recall,
 And all our lives we'll loyal be,
 St. Petersburg, to thee.
