

TROJANS CAGERS MEET MIAMI VARSITY

Seek Revenge for Defeat Last Week

The St. Petersburg Junior College basketball team will meet the strong University of Miami varsity tonight here at the Y. M. C. A. on the nights of Feb. 23 and Feb. 24. The Miami team is undefeated so far this season and holds victories over many of the strongest teams in Florida, including two wins over the Trojans.

Coach Tom McLean brings an experienced array of basketball players among which Folger and McKim are regarded as outstanding. Coach Roy Winner does not predict victories over the Hurricanes but hopes to give them close battles.

TROJANS LOSE TO MIAMI VARSITY

Unable to overcome the handicap of playing on a small clay outside court, the Trojans cagers lost to the Florida Military Institute Generals by a score of 25 to 27 in a game played in Haines City, January 13. St. Pete held a lead of 20 points over the Generals at the end of the half but were overthrown by F. M. I. in the closing minutes of the game. Capt. Young scored 14 points for St. Pete while Kaeser made 13 for F. M. I.

Young	118
Gandy	26
Walker	26
Graham	25
Gapen	25
Henry	15
Coy	7
Folger	6
Others	9
Team scoring	253
Opponents	241

WALK-OVER
Boot Shop
419 Central Ave.

GOLF SWEATERS - TENNIS SWIMMING SUITS
SPORTSMEN EQUIPMENT CO.
209 Central

TROJANS DEFEAT TAMPA SPARTANS

The St. Petersburg Junior College basketball team tonight defeated the Tampa Spartans in a game played at the Tampa "Y" January 23. Although trailing throughout the game the Tampa Spartans made an almost victorious comeback in the fourth quarter only to see the Trojans strengthen their lead with successive baskets by Young, Graham and Walker.

Capt. Cy Young scored 23 points one less than the Tampa team to lead the S. P. J. C. scorers. Henry was banished from the game in the second quarter on fouls and Capen went the same route in the fourth.

S. P. J. C. DEFEATS ROLLINS

The St. Petersburg Junior College Trojans, presenting their best offense of the year combined with an airtight defense, defeated the freshmen basketball team from Rollins College by a score of 48 to 29 January 25, in one of the best games played on the "Y" floor this year. Gandy scored 15 points and Young 17 points to lead scores on both teams.

The Trojan cagers were defeated in both games of a two-game basketball series, played with the University of Miami varsity in Miami, February 2 and February 6. The score of the first game was 25 to 28 and of the second, 25 to 35. The Trojans took early leads in both games but lost them as the games progressed. Both games were tight and exciting until the final quarters when the Miami Hurricanes, after wanting down the St. Pete team with frequent substitutions, used their much more experienced players to score at will over the Trojans. McKim, Folger and Graham played well for the Hurricanes while Young, Walker and Coy were outstanding for St. Petersburg.

DRINK XXX ROOT BEER
Toasted Sandwiches Soft Drinks
TRIPLE XXX
THIRST STATION
16th STREET
1st AVE. NORTH

YOUNG MEN'S
Two-Trouser Suits
Beginning at $25.00
DENT & ENGLISH
323 CENTRAL AVENUE

FOUNTAIN
tea-room
SANDWICH
MILLION DOLLAR PIECE
ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.

WALK-OVER
Boot Shop
419 Central Ave.

DRINK XXX ROOT BEER
Toasted Sandwiches Soft Drinks
TRIPLE XXX
THIRST STATION
16th STREET
1st AVE. NORTH

YOUNG MEN'S
Two-Trouser Suits
Beginning at $25.00
DENT & ENGLISH
323 CENTRAL AVENUE

GOLF SWEATERS - TENNIS SWIMMING SUITS
SPORTSMEN EQUIPMENT CO.
209 Central

APRIL FOOL FROLIC TO AID WOODEN HORSE

The committee on the inter-collegiate dance to be given for the benefit of the Annual edition of the Wooden Horse, has announced that it is planning an "April Fool Frolic" to be held at the Yacht Club on the evening of April 3.

Clubs Plan Dance

The Student Athletic Council committee has announced that it is planning an "April Fool Frolic" to be held at the Yacht Club on the evening of April 3.

Debaters Meet Miami

Last Thursday the debating team of the Junior College left to take part in one of the most important debates scheduled for them this year. The debate took place Saturday morning, March 12, with the University of Miami team, at the University auditorium. The subject, which is of national interest and is the regular college debating subject, was "Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation for the control of industry."

Production to Be Staged at Adams Estate

Augusta B. Center, professor of speech in the Junior College, has officially announced that "A Midsummer Night's Dream," this year's Shakespearean production of the Junior College dramatists, will be given on the evening of April 7, in the garden of Mayor Adams' estate in Big Bayou.

Reviews Hear Reports

A very delightful meeting of the Reviewers Club was held Wednesday evening, March 9, at the home of Iris Knox. The large group of students present met around the fireplace and listened to the interesting reports given. The first was an account of early magazines, by Florence Gilman. Carolyn West then told of modern magazines (including Betty's). This was followed by a review of the "Harbormaster" by William McPho, given by Janet Gerrig. Miss Porter then presented "The New Russian Prisoner" by Ill, given by Kathryn Crowell. "The Father's God" by Rozaar, given by Cornelia Garrick, and a book of Chinese poems, by Janet Gerrig. Miss Porter then showed some interesting slides on the "Lives of Peter." The meeting was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the hostess.

Playmakers to Represent College in Festival

The dramatic club will represent the Junior College in the Festival of States' pageant on March 21, by presenting "The First Inauguration at Federal Hall, New York City" which took place April 30, 1789; they will also take part in the inaugural ball.

Around the Corner

M. D. Banquet—March 17.
Auritus Pledge Party—March 25.
L. H. L. Tea Dance—March 28.
Concert by the Octette—Congregational Church—March 29.
Inter-Club April Fool Frolic—April 3.
"Midsummer Night's Dream"—April 7.

PLAY DATE ANNOUNCED

The Student Athletic Council committee has announced that it is planning an "April Fool Frolic" to be held at the Yacht Club on the evening of April 3.

Clubs Plan Dance

The Student Athletic Council committee has announced that it is planning an "April Fool Frolic" to be held at the Yacht Club on the evening of April 3.

Debaters Meet Miami

Last Thursday the debating team of the Junior College left to take part in one of the most important debates scheduled for them this year. The debate took place Saturday morning, March 12, with the University of Miami team, at the University auditorium. The subject, which is of national interest and is the regular college debating subject, was "Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation for the control of industry."

Production to Be Staged at Adams Estate

Augusta B. Center, professor of speech in the Junior College, has officially announced that "A Midsummer Night's Dream," this year's Shakespearean production of the Junior College dramatists, will be given on the evening of April 7, in the garden of Mayor Adams' estate in Big Bayou.

Reviews Hear Reports

A very delightful meeting of the Reviewers Club was held Wednesday evening, March 9, at the home of Iris Knox. The large group of students present met around the fireplace and listened to the interesting reports given. The first was an account of early magazines, by Florence Gilman. Carolyn West then told of modern magazines (including Betty's). This was followed by a review of the "Harbormaster" by William McPho, given by Janet Gerrig. Miss Porter then presented "The New Russian Prisoner" by Ill, given by Kathryn Crowell. "The Father's God" by Rozaar, given by Cornelia Garrick, and a book of Chinese poems, by Janet Gerrig. Miss Porter then showed some interesting slides on the "Lives of Peter." The meeting was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the hostess.

Playmakers to Represent College in Festival

The dramatic club will represent the Junior College in the Festival of States' pageant on March 21, by presenting "The First Inauguration at Federal Hall, New York City" which took place April 30, 1789; they will also take part in the inaugural ball.

Around the Corner

M. D. Banquet—March 17.
Auritus Pledge Party—March 25.
L. H. L. Tea Dance—March 28.
Concert by the Octette—Congregational Church—March 29.
Inter-Club April Fool Frolic—April 3.
"Midsummer Night's Dream"—April 7.

PRODUCTION TO BE STAGED AT ADAMS ESTATE

Augusta B. Center, professor of speech in the Junior College, has officially announced that "A Midsummer Night's Dream," this year's Shakespearean production of the Junior College dramatists, will be given on the evening of April 7, in the garden of Mayor Adams' estate in Big Bayou.

Reviews Hear Reports

A very delightful meeting of the Reviewers Club was held Wednesday evening, March 9, at the home of Iris Knox. The large group of students present met around the fireplace and listened to the interesting reports given. The first was an account of early magazines, by Florence Gilman. Carolyn West then told of modern magazines (including Betty's). This was followed by a review of the "Harbormaster" by William McPho, given by Janet Gerrig. Miss Porter then presented "The New Russian Prisoner" by Ill, given by Kathryn Crowell. "The Father's God" by Rozaar, given by Cornelia Garrick, and a book of Chinese poems, by Janet Gerrig. Miss Porter then showed some interesting slides on the "Lives of Peter." The meeting was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the hostess.

Playmakers to Represent College in Festival

The dramatic club will represent the Junior College in the Festival of States' pageant on March 21, by presenting "The First Inauguration at Federal Hall, New York City" which took place April 30, 1789; they will also take part in the inaugural ball.

Around the Corner

M. D. Banquet—March 17.
Auritus Pledge Party—March 25.
L. H. L. Tea Dance—March 28.
Concert by the Octette—Congregational Church—March 29.
Inter-Club April Fool Frolic—April 3.
"Midsummer Night's Dream"—April 7.

INSIDE DOPE

What Do You Read? See EDITORIALS	Page 2
Do You Speak French, Spanish or German? See FOR THE	Page 2
POLYGLOT	Page 2
OUR LANGUAGE IMPROVERS	Page 3
LITERARY ENDEAVORS	Page 3
MUSIC DEPARTMENT NEWS	Page 3
Has the Plover Horse told you? see	Page 4
LITTERED DIRT	Page 4
CHAPEL CHAT	Page 4
The Loveless on the Hill. See SOCIETY	Page 5
What about Bambi? See SPORTS	Page 6

The Wooden Horse

PUBLISHED BI-WEEKLY BY THE STUDENTS OF THE ST. PETERSBURG JUNIOR COLLEGE

Editor-in-Chief: George E. Woods
Associate Editor: Roy Hollis
Business Manager: Jack Slaughter
Advertising Manager: Edna Hoffman
Assistant Advertising Manager: Overton Clayton
Librarian: Marion May
Assistant Librarian: Edna Hoffman
Society Editor: Cytha Ferguson
Assistant Society Editor: Dorothy Nabus
Sports Editor: James Hendry
Make-Up Editor: Simon Walton
Exchange Editor: Marion Howard
Art Editor: Edna Hoffman
Proof-reading Editor: Florence Gilman
Head Feature Writer: Edna Hoffman
Head Typist: Marion Dow
Feature Writers: John Shevman, Carolyn West, Roy Hollis, Paul Hazan, Betty Williams.

STUDENT OPINION

Statements which students make in their columns should be quite as truly examples of "student opinion" as are statements made directly to this column. Here are excerpts from three themes on college problems written by students in Mrs. Holman's composition classes.

Students are divided into two classes, the usual and the unusual. To the first class belong the student of average interests and abilities who wishes to become a useful individual in his community. The second class is made up of those who doubtfully he should go to college, for there he will learn the necessary qualities for good citizenship.

FOR THE POLYGLOT

Entre los Españoles: Para cada día habitantes, España tiene una gran familia que incluye Italia y Bélgica. En la parte de arriba más que Alemania, Dinamarca, Unión, Francia, Inglaterra, Italia, Suiza, Bélgica, Dinamarca y Holanda.

La senorita Porter—"Toda ha escrito ocho o diez páginas sobre el tema de la leche, y usted tan solo escribe cuatro líneas. ¿Qué? ¿Es que yo he tratado de la leche condensada?"

CAUSERIES

It is a rumour that M. Barclay Thomas poses des questions difficiles dans la classe de la première année. Ses questions sont toujours assez intéressantes. Il a posé cette question il y a quelques jours: "Est-ce les quilles de bowling qui sont les plus intéressantes?"

DEUTSCHE

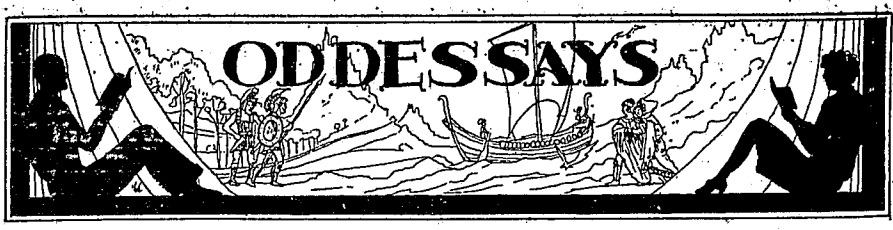

Wandere Nachtlied: Ihre alten diphten ist Ruh, in allen Wipfeln kuckst du. Baum oben Hauch: die Vogeln schwiegen in Wolde. Warte mir, bald rühst du auch. —Johann Wolfgang von Goethe. And that in English is "Wandere's Night Song" by Langfellow.

THE MAN WHO THINKS HE HAS ARRIVED IS ALREADY SIPPING!

It is the anecdote that best defines the personality.—Emil Ludwig.

FACULTY

Editor's note: This is the seventh of a series of articles on the faculty of the Junior College. We print them in order that you may become better acquainted with our really excellent staff of instructors.

On the Noble Cause of Co-education

Is co-education or isn't it...? My friend, Stephen Lancelot, after doing most assiduously into the matter, declared that there is no place for women in men's schools, that co-education has no purpose. But I, ask, if there is no place for women at men's schools, what then is the purpose of beautiful college buildings, artistic campus grounds, and college sports? Are they not to present a suitable background for the visit of the fair sex? And what about dances, home parties, and graduation? Wasn't a midshipman who said: "I breathe there a man with soul so dead."

Dawn

Dawn is a lovely hour—slipping freshness to the hilltop— With misty eyes—and a body of light—beneath fog diffused. Dawn is a lovely hour— Dawn is a lovely hour—coming to the sea— Nibbed at truth—soft as a lullaby. Showy—panting—yawning and stretching! Dawn is a lovely hour— But dawn is loveliest in an alley! With tumbled boxes—garbage cans, turrets—grey with a mystery! And I laugh for beside it—the little pale crescent One—oh!—the moon is as plain and uninteresting As a wrinkled patch—on the "Hills of the morning."

On Another Campus

The Johnston Junior College of the University of Pittsburgh, represented at the Intercollegiate Model Government Conference held at the University of Pittsburgh recently. The conference was conducted on the same plan as the Geneva Conference. Each college represented a country and spoke for that country. —The Panther Club of Johnston Junior College. I saw a giant colobus Pung far across the sky! The moon, a crescent spire, Watched with patient eye.

To You in Your Idleness

Last night I watched you from my chair In a restless, pensive mood. Your emotions lingering in your eyes As they fall upon the ivory keys. There was a hazy curtain between you and me. You were alone with your music; I with my thoughts. Because my hands and voice cannot bring forth Those hidden melodies in the mystic air. You thought I did not understand; But each resounding note you struck Reached deep within my heart And when you sang dear one, I looked into your soul. —Iris Knox, '32.

Editorials: WHAT DO YOU READ?

Gunter Stein, the eminent German journalist, in a recent article in "Living Age" entitled "What Moscow Reads", says of the periodicals of my country: "They reveal its true character. What they contain and what they lack, what they emphasize and what they conceal, their prohibitions and liberties, their style and form—all these things are not chance creations. They represent, consciously or unconsciously, a portrait of an entire country."

What a nice little job of self-analysis each one of us could do in crystal-gazing with our own soul the crystal, by just reviewing in our minds the different types of periodicals and books (excluding school assignments) that have occupied our leisure hours during the past year. Just as truly as the periodicals and books of a country reveal its character and point a portrait of its standards and ideals, so does the reading matter of a student, for example, reveal his character and his ambitions.

"Consciously or unconsciously" the types and styles of books and magazines that we prefer, present an accurate snapshot of us.

IT IS UP TO US

In a recent editorial, Bruce Barton makes very clear to us that the answer to the question "What will become of us if this depression continues?" is entirely up to the individual. The genuineness of a coin is tested by ringing it down on some hard surface. Sooner or later, as one columnist puts it, the metal of our character will be thrown down on the hard stone of adversity; then will we shine forth, or flicker feebly as the case may be, in our true light. For many of our parents this depression has been their test and their actions have revealed their strength and weakness. Some day we too will face a crisis when our fortitude and hypocrisies will depend on the strength of our character, and not until then will we know that we "have the stuff." During our school years we are building character. Let us see to it that we build wisely and well!

The man who thinks he has arrived is already sipping! It is the anecdote that best defines the personality.—Emil Ludwig.

MR. VILLAFRANCA By Jean Campbell Mr. Villafranca, our very competent and capable professor of French, has had a very interesting life. He was born in San Jose, Costa Rica, and "very many years ago," as he says, He went to high school there, but after a short time agent in Europe, completed his last year in high school in Richmond, Virginia, where he studied English. However, after a year there, he returned to Europe, living at various times in Barcelona, Spain, Nice, France, Milan and Genoa, Italy, and in Zurich, Switzerland. While in Spain and in Switzerland, he attended an institute where he took his undergraduate work. After completing this work, Mr. Villafranca taught French in a high school in Costa Rica, was supervisor of Spanish for two years in the Panama Canal Zone, and had the position of supervisor of the modern languages department in a high school in Connecticut. He holds a Master's Degree from Yale University and at the present time is working on his Ph.D. degree from New York University, where he has taught for the last three summers.

ATLEY T. GILSON By Carolyn West Let all the students of Junior College note these words: "No teacher ever flunk a student, the student flunk themselves." Such was the most outstanding note of the talk given to this reporter from none other than Professor Atley T. Gilson. Who is Atley T. Gilson? For those students who do not know, he is Professor Peter Gilson, the person at the head of the Spanish Department of our college.

Mr. Gilson has been with the college since the first day that it opened its doors. It is an utter impossibility to get anything that you do not deserve in any Spanish class of his doors. It is largely through his efforts and the hard work that he spends in making Spanish more attractive to the students that the Spanish course has been made some of the best and most interesting offered in this school. Mr. Gilson never gives a test until the students ask for it and then when the test is given they wish that they had never made such a request. Yes, girls, I'm sorry, but "Peter" is married and his wife understands.

Wandere Nachtlied: Ihre alten diphten ist Ruh, in allen Wipfeln kuckst du. Baum oben Hauch: die Vogeln schwiegen in Wolde. Warte mir, bald rühst du auch. —Johann Wolfgang von Goethe. And that in English is "Wandere's Night Song" by Langfellow.

Mr. Gilson never gives a test until the students ask for it and then when the test is given they wish that they had never made such a request. Yes, girls, I'm sorry, but "Peter" is married and his wife understands.

UPTURNED-DIRT

By THE PLOW HORSE
This week's honor page goes to Wink, "Pat", and Madam Touart...

Wonder why the crowd at the pier Friday morning? Can't dope that out.

The prevailing question is why they call one charming member of the...

The freshman class "Holides" could it be for the same reason that a prominent member of the senior...

What has become of the "bedding apparatus" in E's class?

Months ago to find out from Glim if that was a basketball game or a poker game!

Will someone please find out from "Owen" where she acquired the "L. L. C." name model worn while "Owen" was out at Senior High...

Who is the "PH" that causes so much hurry in the library?

A certain attractive young man of the sophomore class seems to be having quite a hard time handling a "ferma". It's okay if first you don't succeed to try again—but after THREE unsuccessful attempts, why not refrain for a while?

High Orestuff: Mary's wonder-hull she talks like a book. Simpson Watson: But can you shut her up like one?

McNulty: This quarter is no good; it won't ring. Bartlett: What do you want for two bits, chimes?

Bob Meredith: Will you sit down in front so I can see this game? Bob Carey: Sorry, but I'm not built that way.

SMART SHOES For College Girls $7.50 and $10.00 Bimson & Carpenter 418 Central Avenue

Down Melody Lane

By JOHN SHEWMAN
Today our trip down Melody Lane takes us to Tampa where the...

The Otette are planning to present a concert on March 29 at the Congregational Church, made up of several popular selections as well as those of a more classical type.

The Church is holding us to the limit, so the concert appears to be a probable proposition.

We all hoped that we would have an orchestra this year in the college. We will have a chance to hear that hope materialized when the Junior College Ensemble Orchestra will play for the Shaker...

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

There's many a ham that has been cooked outside the smokehouse.

STALL STORIES

By THE OLD NAG
George Rheolypus Weeks, aged twenty-six years and nine months...

We certainly have something to look forward to in chapel next Monday. These of our most talented...

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

Short Story
Hiram on farm. College for knowledge. Girl White, Uran Khan. Slipped. Slipped. Education's fan. So's the breadline.

CHAPEL CHAT

By JEAN CAMPBELL
Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Friday, students of Mrs. Holmer English classes will read themes in chapel written to honor the Washington Bicentennial year. These are to discuss various phases of Washington's life and will make a very original program.

Tennis Tournament

Uiles Walker, one of the greatest all-around athletes in the history of the Junior College, and Bob Carey, captain of last year's tennis team, will meet this week in the final match of the Junior College tennis tournament...

Walker advanced to the finals by a surprising upset over Gordon Graham, one of the seeded players...

This year's net team appears moderately strong with Carey, Walker, Graham, Winters and North, appearing as the most outstanding players.

An intercollegiate schedule with other colleges including Rollins, Stetson, Miami, University of Florida, Freshman, and Tampa Junior College is being arranged by Manager Statcup.

Math. Instructor to Attend Convention
William A. Gager, head of the Mathematics Department of the Junior College, will attend the meeting of the southeastern section of the Mathematical Association of America...

Several prominent educators will address this gathering on topics related to the teaching of mathematics in high schools and in colleges.

The chief speaker will be Professor Dunham Jackson of the University of Minnesota. The meeting will be doubly interesting to Mr. Gager since he is acquainted with W. W. Rankin of Duke University who is secretary-chairman of the program committee of the association.

Owen Catter Jewelry Co. 403 Central Avenue. Headquarters for DIAMONDS, WATCHES, RINGS, COMPLEMENTS OF Garvin Moore, Inc. OPTOMETRIST & OPTICIAN 15 First Street South Opposite Florida Theatre

COLE'S JEWELRY COMPANY 411 Central Avenue FOR THE BEST IN JEWELRY SEE US.

AULD'S, INC. Columbus, Ohio. Headquarters for Class Rings, Class Pins, Stationery, etc.

J. D. PEARCE, Inc. Registered Copyrights A STORE FULL OF ATTRACTIVE GIFTS Norris and Whitman Candles OPEN ALL NIGHT 822 Central Avenue

ST. PETERSBURG BUSINESS COLLEGE An Accredited School ALL BUSINESS SUBJECTS Gregg Shorthand a Specialty Second Floor Florida Arcade 1214 1/2 St. 427

Over the T Cups

BY CYNTHA FERGUSON Society Editor
Greetings to all ye who drink tea and even to all ye who do not. I prefer hot chocolate today myself. Isn't cold weather lovely - if we don't have to go to school? That Friday mention certainly created some pleased excitement. Iris was so elated that she nuzzled George's neck while they stood in the middle of the upstairs hall. One girl gaily tripped the full length of the stairs to the rhythm of "no lit, last today" and several phrases about "no chemistry problems" were very audible.

All of you pull your chairs a little closer and I'll tell you the gossip about Marty Black. She got left at the church steps on a particular night last week. Yes she did. She waited and waited for Hugh... and it seems that meanwhile, Hugh was waiting on the Coliseum steps for Marty!

Paul Maclean, Don Stone, and Dolores in high schools and in colleges. The most vivid impression left on the members of the Otette in Tampa Monday seems to be a little blonde Irish waitress who served their lunch to them. In fact Bill Robinson was so impressed that he asked about a name, address and telephone number. His defense was that St. Patrick's season calls for a bit of the Irish. Rose had no defense.

Have you all heard that it took the entire basketball team to track down that mild George Stapan and bring him into the custody of "Sherriff Ray Iron" who posted the advertisement of a reward for his capture on the Bulletin board? I wonder who chased the third of a stick of gum that was purchased with the reward.

Have you met the newest new student? He is from Washington, D. C. and he is accomplished in the operation of a Magic lantern. His name? Oh—Mathew Sawtelle. Bye. See you anon.

But more gossip—it's delicious.

Society

CLUB NOTES
The regular meeting of the L. H. L. Club was held at the home of Mary Wainwright Thursday, March 10. Final plans for the tea dance March 26 were made after which delicious refreshments were served.

The K. T. Club met Wednesday, March 9, at the Goodwin Apartments, where a general business meeting was held. A special meeting was planned for Monday night in honor of George Sattaman who is home from Miami University for several days.

Following the faculty tea which has been postponed until Saturday, March 19, the Argutris Club will hold a pledge service for three new pledges, Kathryn Crowell, Hilda Ray, and Ruth Schiller. In the evening a theatre party and supper will be given in honor of the pledges.

My love, she flew, She does me dirt; I never knew She was a flirt. To those unskooled I do forbid, To be so done As I was did.

As he bent close to her and gazed into her blue, radiant, tear filled eyes, she spoke slowly, softly and with great deliberation. "Yes," he said, "there is a closer in your eye."

ORANGE BLOSSOM CANDY SHOP Open All Year FRESH CANDY EVERY DAY 528 Central Avenue A. E. Auger, Prop.

BARNARDS' DRESSES 434 First Avenue North St. Petersburg, Florida

PHILCO RADIOS Complete as low as $36.50 John Danison Radio Co. 123 - 3rd St. St. Phone 9904 Service On All Makes

The Bishop Business School "THE GREGG SCHOOL OF ST. PETERSBURG" DAY AND EVENING CLASSES College Trained Teachers Times Building

COMPLIMENTS of COLISEUM OPERATING CO.

THE STYLE SHOP DRESSES - COATS MILLINERY 527 Central Avenue

ICE SERVICE CO. A Co-operative Delivery Service for Dinnon, Inc., Wholesale Grocers for St. and Petersburg West Coast Ice Co. Offices: 100 Ninth St. South

Pinellas Printing Co. 255 Central Avenue Dial 4100 Students' School Supplies

Advertisements and notices at the bottom of the page.